NORWICH GOES LICENSE BY 1096

Selectmen C. K. Bailey and C. P. Bushnell Re-elected-Town Went Republican With Exception of Assessor, M. J. Curran Defeating Joseph C. Marsan by 92 Majority.

CASPER K. BAILEY

The town of Norwick went licens on Monday by a majority of 1096 and with the exception of the office of as-sessor the republicans made a clean sweep in the election, with a major-ity of 117. The vote on the license question in the six districts of the town was a the six districts of the town was a heavy one and the large majority ex-ceded all expectations of the liquor interests. Just before the polls closed in the Central district at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon the more optimistic of the license advocates estimated a possible majority of five hundred for the town.

When the count was completed in the Central district it showed a ma-

Hindrances to Usefulness.

The great hindrances to usefulness the second Joseph C. Marsan, republi-can candidate, had a majority of 18, in the fourth a majority of 21 and in his in those who think they wish to be useful, yet have never really tried to be, some district, the fifth, a majority of are pusillanimousness and ambition. The fight for agents of the town de-posit fund was close the majority be-ing about fifty. The republican ma-jority for constables was somewhat larger, being in the neighborhood of eighty. It was a close vote for the school committee, the majority being They are twin sisters. To put it otherwise, there is the fagit of not thinking it worth while to do a little because it is little, and of not caring to do something because it may not lead to much.—Bishop Thorold.
